AI COACH

The 86% in Utilities looks misclassified.

A single $3.70M EFTPOS line on Mar 17 dominates your spending. Reclassifying it would drop your "fixed bills" by 99.7%.

Massive one-off inflow

You earned $1.88B this period — almost entirely from a single PAYID transfer on Feb 14. Strip it out and effective income is $48,785.

Spending stayed disciplined

14% of spending was discretionary ($581K); the rest was fixed bills. Eating Out fell -18% vs the prior quarter.

One outlier dominates

$3.78M in "Utilities" comes from one Mar 17 EFTPOS line — likely a misclassified bulk transfer, not a real utility bill.
